

Portland Street Response

CONFIDENTIAL • VOLUNTARY • FREE OF CHARGE

About Our Program

We offer compassionate mobile crisis response for people experiencing non-life-threatening mental or behavioral health crises.

All services are confidential, voluntary, and free of charge.

We're staffed with medical personnel, licensed mental health crisis workers, case managers, and peer support specialists.

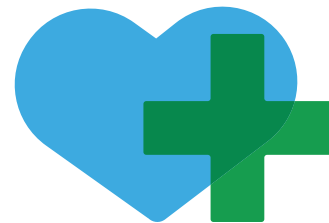

We're dispatched as unarmed, trauma-informed first responders for non-life-threatening (but crisis-related) calls.

Contact

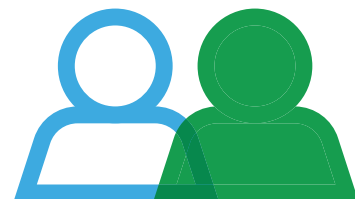

Requests are made through 911.

Callers can anonymously ask for Portland Street Response.

Service Area

Starting March 28, 2022, the program is dispatched citywide.

Hours

Portland Street Response is available seven days a week from 8 am – 10pm.
